

SEXUAL ABUSE SUPPORT SERVICES

New Pathways provide a service to secure the best outcomes for victims of sexual assault/abuse that meets agreed clinical, forensic and operational standards and operates within a culture of partnership and collaboration. They provide twenty-four hour access to crisis support, first aid, safeguarding, specialist clinical and forensic care and ongoing support in a safe place.

This includes the provision of crisis workers who support victims that have suffered a sexual assault and Independent Sexual Violence Advisors who support victims with their journey through their criminal justice system.
